Thayer.

Wednesday March 17, 1897.—Rev. J. B. McNary returned home from the annual conference of the M. E. church at Pittsburg Tuesday afternoon. He informs us that he has been returned to Thayer for another year. This is as it should be, for Rev. McNary has given splendid satisfaction, both as a preacher and a citizen deserved to be returned.

Mrs. Eugene Buchanan of Earleton was visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ross Welch Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Hancock our railroad agent who has been enjoying a 30 days lay off, has again resumed charge of the office here.

Zella Abbot's school at South Center will close in a few days, and he expects to leave at once for Emporia to attend the state normal.

Harry Carter is now clerking for H. L. Freeman at Chanute. Harry is a nice young man and Mr. Freeman did well to secure his services.

A. D. Lowrance and family moved up from Independence Monday of last week. He will begin work for G. W. Lowrance & Son in a few days.

We noticed Chas. Cross of our neighboring oil city Neodesha, on our streets last Wednesday. He is visiting our rustling hardware merchant C. E. Evans.

Arthur Carter was down from Chanute Sunday, visiting friends and investigating that special deliver matter we spoke of last week. He "fessed" up like a little man.

The News man informed us that he has secured the valuable service of Elmer Walker for this spring and summer. Elmer will begin in about a week. Miss Bertha Eagles who is now holding the cases down, will leave in a short time for Indiana to visit relatives for several months.

Harry Franklin was tried and fined $5 and costs before Probate Judge Barnes a few days ago for disturbing the peace. He was no sooner released than he was arrested again by Deputy Sheriff Elliott upon a state warrant, charged with flourishing a deadly weapon and attempting to use the same upon Wm. Conrad. He will be tried before Squire Long this week.

A couple of ladies indulged in quite a lively scrimmage in Gelwix's store last Saturday, and our friend John Minnich who was drawing a bucket of syrup for one of them when it began, received a jolt on the nose with the bucket, as well as getting its contents spilled over his clothes. John says if the women want to fight, he would prefer they go outside or wait until some time when he is not down on his knees drawing syrup.

Earleton.

Tuesday March 16, 1897.—Henry Ocker went to Kansas City Saturday to visit his son Harry for a short time.

Harry Wilson has moved into Mrs. Clemens' property.

Mr. Neeley of Urbana was in our city a short time Sunday.

J. A. Alleman is building an addition to his store room.

Sheriff Prange was over Thursday attending to legal business.

Robert Frazier and wife of Austin attended services at U. B. church Sunday.

Geo. Moran and R. Umbarger hauled some fine corn to this market last week.

V. B. Richardson has not yet decided where he will locate, but is thinking seriously of going to Colorado.

Campbell Alford has an incubator set with 25 dozen eggs, almost ready to hatch. He counts on about 80 per cent.

Rev. Booe, a traveling evangelist preached Sunday morning and evening at Leanna. He is quite an old gentleman, yet a clear, forcible talker.

At the funeral last Saturday it was plainly to be seen that something should be done for our cemetery in the way of draining it. In a wet time a newly dug grave is a veritable mud hole and by the time the grave is filled the coffin is full of water. It is awful to think of.

Saturday Mr. Burghart, our postmaster received an official notice from the post office department notifying him that on and after April 1st, 1897, the present mail route—Stark to Chanute, via Leanna, would be discontinued and instead the mail will leave Stark at 3 p. m. daily, except Sunday, coming by way of Odessa, reaching Leanna at 6 p. m., returning the next morning at 9:45 a. m., leaving out Chanute entirely. This makes our mail from 12 to 24 hours late, and our people are highly incensed over the matter, and a remonstrance will be sent it instanter.

St. Paul.

Wednesday March 17, 1897.—T. K. Joyce and Ralph Tepler will soon open up a flour and feed store here. E. A. Mapes spent last Wednesday in Walnut.
